Pride Contract

I, _____, agree to make an effort to stop having a prideful nature. I agree to be honest and truthful to myself about these inappropriate behaviors. I acknowledge that prideful behaviors cause me to have a negative attitude regarding the worth and ability of others. I'll pay close attention to my interactions, thoughts, speech, and attitudes. If I do wrong, I will rectify my mistakes as soon as possible. I'll change my behaviors and treat others with respect. I know that my success is totally up to me. This works . . . if I'll work. I'm a special person grafted into the olive tree. Therefore, I have the power to control my prideful actions.
